NOTES:

"Todd claims that he is currently working to break his record with a story that will last nineteen minutes. Todd gets a little hung up a few times on the lyrics to Ballad of the Kingsmen (see Variations below). A very quick Spinal Tap reference at the end of Ballad of the Kingsmen. The version of the K.K. Rider story Todd tells during this show is one of the most entertaining and most detailed versions he's told yet. A few great one-liners during this show: "I say tomato, she says go fuck yourself" (before All My Life), "Fourteen out of ten of you are gonna love this one" (before Statistician's Blues)." - Tim Lybarger, www.eighteenminutes.com
